Activity: watch the film Naughty Land. When you've finished the film, answer the questions on the worksheet.

Questioning Koala (who always asks questions) starts with this question today:
Would you like to live in Naughty Land?

I'm responding racoon and I like quick answers.

Circle one answer:

YES or NO

I'm a reasoning rodent and I would like to know why you wrote YES or NO. Can you give a reason for your answer?

Questioning Koala now asks: Imagine if Francesca stayed in Naughty Land for a bit. Do you think shr should live like the Naughty-Landers or do you think she should try to get them to change the way they live?

Here's another choice of answers. Circle one answer:

Live like the Naughty-Landers.

or

Try to change the Naughty-Landers

Now can you say why you said live like the Naughty-Landers or try to change them?

Disagreeing Dog barks: Woof woof, I disagree! But Disagreeing Dog can't think why he disagrees! Can you help him? Can you think of a reason why someone might disagree with your answer and think something different?

Questioning Koala now wonders: Is there something that it is always good to do, no matter who you are and no matter where you live?

YES or NO

Can you explain your answer? If you thought YES, can you give an example? If you thought NO, can you explain why?

Example Elephant always wants an example. Can you think of something that it is always bad to do? Write your example here, and say why you think it is bad:
