Fill half of your chosen container with oil using a funnel to help keep things nice and tidy! 3. Next, fill the second half of the container with water - adding food colouring or ink at this stage will give it an extra exciting touch! Watch carefully as the water and colour drifts down slowly through the oil, creating beautiful trails and patterns! 4. Secure the lid on your container - to help, you could add tape around the lid to try and make it watertight. 5. Gently tip your container from side to side. 6. Let your mind relax and flow with the water and oil in your container as you watch the patterns swirl and slip over one another.
