Using the biography template we would like you to find out more about someone who you view as being great. Using this planning sheet will allow you to organise the information that you find.	Future Me Visit this website and write a letter to your future self. You should explain where you are now and what you cherish about yourself. Also write about where you want to be in 20 years' time. What will your role and place in the world be? What are you hoping to cherish about yourself then?
Images of Greatness Half Term Project	What defines Greatness? By looking at what we admire in others we gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the world and how we can enhance our own character. This afternoon we would like you to create your own definition for greatness. What makes someone 'great' in your opinion? What should someone do or say to be remembered and to become someone who is admired by many? What one person considers as great may not be the same	What do I cherish about myself? Today we are looking at defining greatness on different levels. We would like you to consider the below points. Make some notes on these that you can come back to later. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Self - what makes you unique? 2. Home- who do you consider great at home? Why? 3. School - Who do you consider great at school? Why? 4. Community - who do you consider great in the community? Why? 	Lesser known individuals of greatness Today you will be exploring lesser known people of significance. There are some examples below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Read about Fred Hollows and watch short 6-minute video about his life. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rmSdt8uZ5qI Discuss the "greatness" of what he had done and the legacy he has left behind. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Andy Murray-changed attitudes towards women in sport- http://www.irishnews.com/sport/othersports/2019/01/16/news/and-y-murray- 	Project Boards Over the next two afternoons you are going to be creating a special project board. (A2) You can start this by adding a portrait for your chosen person of greatness to the middle of the board. This can be created in any media, eg. Charcoal, collage, pencil, pastels and crayon. You must also include the following information on your board, drawing from all of the work that you have been doing on greatness this week. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your understanding and definition of greatness discovered through our activities. • People in your life and why they are 	Project Boards Over the next two afternoons you are going to be creating a special project board. 	as what another may consider as great. This afternoon when we meet on Zoom at 3pm we would like you to present your ideas, findings and viewpoints in whatever way you would like. This could be by reading a speech you have prepared, sharing a mind map or PowerPoint presentation. Try to be as creative as you can be. We are looking forward to seeing and hearing your interpretation of the term 'greatness'.	Using your definition of greatness from yesterday, reflect on your own character strengths. Design a Personal Coat of Arms We would like you to create your own personal coat of arms like the one below. Divide this into four sections; self, home, school and community. Write in each section who you think can be defined in these areas and why. 	changed-minds-and-attitudes-towards-women-1528597/ See who else you can find that has left a powerful legacy behind them that may not be as well known in the public eye.	great.
